8/16/2014	23:00	Field Patrol	Officer conducted patrol of the property and encountered a group of (3) intoxicated individuals sitting on benches at Jetty park. I observed them and made contact. I asked if they have been drinking-they couldn't give me an answer and were very confrontational. I asked them to leave in which they continued to confront and raise their voices. I continued to inform them that they need to leave. One individual kept assuming a fighting stance and appeared violent. Fortunately, a California game warden was parked 30 ft. away and observed the altercation. He made contact and detained the violent individual. We decided to release him and the other (2) to go home off property. They left property at 23:40 hrs approxiamatley - No further.
